SPRING AHEAD

In the northern hemisphere Spring starts on March 20. Growing up in New England I always looked forward anxiously to Spring, breaking out my baseball glove, my bike and all the other enjoyable activities that warmer weather would bring. I thought this would be an enjoyable LifeMap topic so I started asking folks from all walks of life whom I encountered what they most looked forward to at this time of year.

Unfortunately I've had to hold off publishing this edition of LifeMap because the weather in many places hasn't been cooperating very much. With freak snowstorms, floods, mudslides, tornados and the like that I've been seeing on TV it seemed almost sadistic to post the results of this little study

↑ Getting the Garden In. In our modern world fresh fruits and vegetables are easier to get year 'round than ever before. But nothing beats the taste of something you've grown yourself. Many folks find digging in the dirt and mulch a source of relaxation. I do not but I willingly trade some much-needed exercise for garden fresh tomatoes, figs, radishes, onions and more. I'm no Zen master but watching food grow up out of bare earth is pretty darn close to a miracle. And a warning to the Bad Bunny Gang of Cape Cod: cute, shmoot, I'm on to you this year!!!

LifeMap(sm) is about making the most out of each day, each week, each season of life.

CAREER BEST SELLER

Added to this powerful mix, are the hard-won lessons from the personal experiences of thousands of professionals who have succeeded in the job changing game. It is not necessary for you to struggle to rediscover and reinvent the job hunting process. Here you will find the keys to a more productive, shorter and less stressful job search.
